3. 2023-2024 Budget Review and Public Hearing Preparation
   a. Budget Discussion
      1. Education Budget
      2. Town Budget
   b. Guests and Audience Comments

      The Communications and Audience of Citizens is an opportunity for citizens to briefly and respectfully express their thoughts, concerns, and questions to the Board of Finance. We ask that you sign up to speak , on the sheet that is posted at the entrance to the meeting room. You must sign up before the completion of the public comment portion of the meeting. This helps us keep presentations orderly and ensures that everyone that wishes to speak is afforded the opportunity. All comments will be limited to 3 minutes, although you are welcome to sign up again on the signup sheet to speak again during the same meeting. Any written comments/materials must be given to the Board Chair and may be distributed at a later time only after comprehensive review. The Chair may halt any individual public comment at any time if the comments include specific or otherwise personally identifiable references to board employees and/or staff or school district students or if the commentary is considered highly disrespectful or disruptive to the meeting. If a question arises that can be answered this evening ,we will make every effort to do so, otherwise the Chair or her designee will respond to questions in a timely and appropriate manner.

   c. Mill Rate Calculation
   d. Possible Budget Resolution
   e. Citizens' Guide to the Budget

4. Adjournment
