EAST HADDAM STAGE COMPANY

OCTOBER 1

On Saturday October 1st, please join the East Haddam Stage Company, The Friends of Gillette Castle State Park and the East Haddam Historical Society as they honor the memory of CT actor William Gillette's friend, confidante and Hadlyme resident, Yukitaka Osaki. 2022 marks the 80th anniversary of his passing, and a traditional Buddhist dedication ceremony will be held at his graveside, at the historic Cove Cemetery, 89 Ferry Rd Lyme CT, at Noon. After which, attendees will walk down to the CT River, to the ferry landing, where Osaki's house is still standing, for a performance of the one man drama based on his life, 'Osaki-san, William Gillette's Gentleman Valet' with actor Taku Hirai. Refreshments will follow.

All activities will take place outdoors. (Rain date is Sunday October 2nd). Parking at the landing or carpooling from the Gillette Castle parking lot is suggested. This is a free event, and will run from Noon to approximately 3:30pm.

For more information, please contact Kandie Carle at the East Haddam Stage Company 860-873-3521, or write info@EHSCO.org

BELLS OF EAST HADDAM - FINDERS KEEPERS

OCTOBER 1

This fun, family-friendly quest began Labor Day weekend. Look for a ceramic bell hidden along a trail at these East Haddam Land Trust preserves: Ballahack, Duncan, Golet Farm, Hidden Valley Farm, Miller Farm, Olde Field, PeGus's Path, Sheepskin Hollow, and Hammond Mill.

If you find it, keep it. Call 860-873-2264 to retrieve a gift certificate to a local business. Find a blue bell; get a $10 certificate. Find the golden bell; get a $25 certificate. Participation is free; no registration.

Show off your find. Post a photo of your Bell on the East Haddam Land Trust Facebook page with the tag @EastHaddamLandTrust or on Instagram with the hashtags #easthaddamlandtrust #bellsofeasthaddam #shoplocal-everyoneprofits.
