There was discussion regarding media outreach including a letter to the editor about particulars of the project after the information session, to be scheduled with June 28 or June 29.

The items to be discussed at the information session are as follows:

- History
  - Agency how it was created? What led us here, what have we done in the last 9 months
  - Values as an Agency – diverse background/vibrant, economically diverse guidance
  - Sale v. lease
- Value of the property – to be determined pending land containment assessment
- Environmental – VHB efforts
- TIF/tax abatements
- WPI
- Grant writing
- Plan that is now before P&Z
- Things that are happening notwithstanding P&Z
- Opportunities for input/not stopping forward momentum/parallel work stream
- Committing to keeping the town abreast of progress, open communications always, invite people to come or watch or email; goal of our Agency to be transparent

Caitlin will draft the notice for the meeting and circulate. Melanie will draft a script for the information session and circulate. A date certain will be decided at the RA meeting regularly scheduled for June 8th.

Adjournment: 4:31 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Melanie Kolek, Community Engagement Subcommittee Chairman
