Call to Order: Inland-Wetlands Commission Vice Chairman Dean Ferrante called the September 17, 2025, Inland-Wetlands Conservation Commission Regular meeting to order at 7:00 p.m., in the Assembly Room, Plymouth Town Hall.

Present were Inland-Wetlands Commission Vice Chairman Dean Ferrante, Inland-Wetlands Commissioner Jacob Hoadley, and Inland-Wetlands Commissioner Michael Maffia. Excused Absence: Inland-Wetlands Commissioner Nate Brown, and Inland-Wetlands Commissioner Corey Finke. Also in attendance were Director of Planning and Economic Development Margus Laan, and Town Council Liaison Anthony Roveto.

Pledge of Allegiance

Inland-Wetlands Commission Vice Chairman Dean Ferrante led the Inland-Wetlands Commissioners and the Public Audience in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Approval of Agenda Review

Inland-Wetlands Commissioner Michael Maffia stated he wanted to table the new Applications until next Inland-Wetlands Commission meeting because he had difficulty opening all the emails and reading the plans. He further noted the State of CT had an entire division down today, and there were issues earlier this week as well.

When questioned by Margus Laan, Inland-Wetlands Commissioner stated he received the emails but was unable to open them.

Inland-Wetlands Commissioner Jacob Hoadley stated he was unable to open the emails as well.

Inland-Wetlands Commissioner Michael Maffia made a motion, seconded by Inland-Wetlands Commissioner Jacob Hoadley, to table all the new Applications until the next Inland-Wetlands Commission meeting. This motion was approved unanimously.
