

David Vogt Bio

David Vogt has worked in the computer field for almost forty years, with the last twenty-nine years as a computer programmer and analyst. He has owned his home in Dewey Beach for almost forty years and became a full-time resident three years ago. David currently serves as a volunteer for the Dewey Beach Board of Adjustment, and enjoys working a part time job locally at the Bottle and Cork.