Attached is a draft Whistleblower Protection Policy that I have created using various source documents (see attachments #1 - #5). The draft policy was sent to our Auditor and Town Solicitor for comment. I have spoken with both and tried to incorporate their verbal comments into the draft where I felt appropriate. I am seeking approval of this policy at the September 14, 2018 Commissioner's meeting.

Sample Whistleblower Policy

State regulatory requirements for establishing whistleblower reporting programs and for the protection of employees from retaliatory actions should be considered in developing and implementing whistleblower policies such as the example that follows.

ABC Organization Whistleblower Policy

General

The ABC Organization Code of Conduct (hereinafter referred to as the Code) requires directors, other volunteers, and employees to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. Employees and representatives of the organization must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling their responsibilities and comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

The objectives of the ABC Organization Whistleblower Policy are to establish policies and procedures for:

- The submission of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters by employees, directors, officers and other stakeholders of the organization, on a confidential and anonymous basis.
- The receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by the organization regarding accounting, internal controls or auditing matters.
- The protection of directors, volunteers and employees reporting concerns from retaliatory actions.

Reporting Responsibility

Each director, volunteer, and employee of ABC Organization has an obligation to report in accordance with this Whistleblower Policy (a) questionable or improper accounting or auditing matters, and (b) violations and suspected violations of ABC Organization's Code (hereinafter collectively referred to as Concerns).

Authority of Audit Committee

All reported Concerns will be forwarded to the Audit Committee in accordance with the procedures set forth herein. The Audit Committee shall be responsible for investigating, and making appropriate recommendations to the Board of Directors, with respect to all reported Concerns.

No Retaliation

This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable directors, volunteers, and employees to raise Concerns with the Organization for investigation and appropriate action. With this goal in mind, no director, volunteer, or employee who, in good faith, reports a Concern shall be subject to retaliation or, in the case of an employee, adverse employment consequences. Moreover, a volunteer or employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a Concern in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including dismissal from volunteer position or termination of employment.

Reporting Concerns

Employees

Employees should first discuss their Concern with their immediate supervisor. If, after speaking with his or her supervisor, the individual continues to have reasonable grounds to believe the Concern is valid, the individual should report the Concern to the Director of Human Resources. In addition, if the individual is uncomfortable speaking with his or her supervisor, or the supervisor is a subject of the Concern, the individual should report his or her Concern directly to the Director of Human Resources.

If the Concern was reported verbally to the Director of Human Resources, the reporting individual, with assistance from the Director of Human Resources, shall reduce the Concern to writing. The Director of Human Resources is required to promptly report the Concern to the Chair of the Audit Committee, who has specific and exclusive responsibility to investigate all Concerns. If the Director of Human Resources, for any reason, does not promptly forward the Concern to the Audit Committee, the reporting individual should directly report the Concern to the Chair of the Audit Committee. Contact information for the Chair of the Audit Committee may be obtained through the Human Resources Department. Concerns may also be submitted anonymously. Such anonymous Concerns should be in writing and sent directly to the Chair of the Audit Committee.

Directors and Other Volunteers

Directors and other volunteers should submit Concerns in writing directly to the Chair of the Audit Committee. Contact information for the Chair of the Audit Committee may be obtained from the Chief Financial Officer.

Handling Reported Violations

The Audit Committee shall address all reported Concerns. The Chair of the Audit Committee shall immediately notify the Audit Committee, the President, the Executive Director and Chief Operating Officer of any such report. The Chair of the Audit Committee will notify the sender and acknowledge receipt of the Concern within five business days, if possible. It will not be possible to acknowledge receipt of anonymously submitted Concerns.

All reports will be promptly investigated by the Audit Committee, and appropriate corrective action will be recommended to the Board of Directors, if warranted by the investigation. In addition, action taken must include a conclusion and/or follow-up with the complainant for complete closure of the Concern.

The Audit Committee has the authority to retain outside legal counsel, accountants, private investigators, or any other resource deemed necessary to conduct a full and complete investigation of the allegations.

Acting in Good Faith

Anyone reporting a Concern must act in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates improper accounting or auditing practice, or a violation of the Codes. The act of making allegations that prove to be unsubstantiated, and that prove to have been made maliciously, recklessly, or with the foreknowledge that the allegations are false, will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense and may result in discipline up to and including dismissal from the volunteer position or termination of employment. Such conduct may also give rise to other actions including civil lawsuits.

Confidentiality

Reports of Concerns, and investigations pertaining thereto, shall be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct adequate investigation.

Disclosure of reports of Concerns to individuals not involved in the investigation will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense and may result in discipline, up to and including termination of employment. Such conduct may also give rise to other actions, including civil lawsuits.

BEST PRACTICE

Whistleblowing

BACKGROUND:

Statement on Auditing Standards (SAS) No. 112, Communicating Internal Control Related Matters Identified in an Audit, emphasizes the need for governments to have a financial reporting system in place that is sufficient to provide reasonable assurance that management can prepare financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). To meet that objective, a financial reporting system must be designed to detect not only material fraud or abuse, but also any questionable accounting or auditing practices that could jeopardize the integrity of financial reporting. SAS No. 112 instructs independent auditors that inadequate “anti-fraud programs and controls” constitute, at a minimum, a significant deficiency that would need to be reported.

In most cases, potential instances of fraud or abuse and questionable accounting or auditing practices come to the attention of responsible parties thanks to employees or citizens who become aware of such practices. Governments can and should take practical steps to encourage and facilitate such reporting.

RECOMMENDATION:

GFOA recommends that every government establish policies and procedures to encourage and facilitate the reporting of fraud or abuse and questionable accounting or auditing practices. At a minimum, a government should do all of the following:

- Formally approve, and widely distribute and publicize an ethics policy that can serve as a practical basis for identifying potential instances of fraud or abuse and questionable accounting or auditing practices.
- Establish practical mechanisms (e.g., hot line) to permit the confidential, anonymous reporting of concerns about fraud or abuse and questionable accounting or auditing practices to the appropriate responsible parties.¹
- A government should regularly publicize the availability of these mechanisms and encourage individuals who may have relevant information to provide it to the government.
- Since ensuring or enhancing confidentiality can significantly increase costs, consider minimizing those costs by providing a separate reporting mechanism for employees, who typically desire greater assurance of confidentiality than do outside parties. In this regard, a government may wish to explore the possibility of engaging the services of an outside vendor to receive complaints from employees. The use of an outside vendor offers a number of potential advantages, including the following:
 - Employees may be more readily persuaded of the confidentiality of their calls if they are made directly to a party outside the government.
 - Vendors may be able to provide extended hours of service, thus avoiding the need to place a call during regular working hours (i.e., while the employee is still at work).

- Train those answering calls from the general public to recognize calls that are reporting fraud or abuse and direct them appropriately to ensure that reports of instances of fraud or abuse by outside parties receive the appropriate disposition even when they are not made through the mechanism established for that purpose.
- Make internal auditors (or their equivalent) responsible for the mechanisms used to report instances of potential fraud or abuse and questionable accounting or auditing practices. Emphasize that they should take whatever steps are necessary to satisfy themselves that a given complaint is without merit before disposing of it. Further, they also should document the disposition of each complaint received so it can be reviewed by the audit committee.
- Have the audit committee, as part of its evaluation of the government's internal control framework, examine the documentation of how complaints were handled to satisfy itself that the mechanisms for reporting instances of potential fraud or abuse, and questionable accounting or auditing practices are in place and working satisfactorily.

Notes:

¹While providing mechanisms to promote the reporting of fraud is an important element of an overall fraud prevention program there are other elements necessary for a complete program that are outside the scope of this recommended practice.
