

Election Officials (Terms Expire 7/2021) :

1. Rick Baierlein — Mr. Baierlein has lived in Dewey Beach for over a decade. He splits his time between Washington, DC, and Dewey Beach. He is a native Delawarean. This is Mr. Baierlein's third year as an election official and absentee ballot tallier. He works for the National Business Journals.
2. Phil Winkler — Mr. Winkler and his wife are full-time residents of Dewey Beach. He has served as an election official several times.
3. Paige Martin — Ms. Martin and her husband are full-time residents of Dewey Beach. They have three children. She is a realtor for Long and Foster. She graduated from the University of Richmond with a BA in English. This is Ms. Martin's second year as an election official.
4. Robert Day — Mr. Day is the longest serving election official having worked for at least seven elections. He and his wife are full-time residents of Dewey Beach. He is a retired from the State of Delaware.
5. Stephen Eckermann — This is Dr. Eckermann's third year as an election official. He is a Atmospheric Physicist for the Naval Research Laboratory. He splits his time between Washington, DC and Dewey Beach.
6. Susan Trencher — Ms. Trencher and her husband are full-time residents of Dewey Beach. She has donated her time to the Dewey Beach elections for many years.