

Election Officials

Rick Baierlein – Talley Clerk

Rick Baierlein has been a property owner in Dewey Beach for 12 years. He lives in DC and works for American City Business Journals in Sale Operations. This will be Rick's second year working with the election committee.

Robert Day – Inspector

Robert Day is retired and a permanent Dewey Beach resident. He has previously participated in Dewey Beach elections as an election judge and an election inspector.

Stephen Eckermann – Tally Clerk

Steve Eckermann lives and works in DC. He has partially owned a property at the Marina View Condominiums on Collins Avenue since 2008. He works as a scientist for the U.S. Navy. He handed out electronic ballots during last year's election.

Susan Trencher -- Tally Clerk

Susan is retired ICU nurse after working at John Hopkins Hospital for more than thirty years. She and her husband have owned a condo on Chesapeake Street for ten years and became full time residents five years ago. Susan has helped count absentee ballots for several years.

Phil Winkler -- Judge

Phil Winkler has been a property owner in Dewey for over 25 years. He and his wife, Ellen, have been full-time residents of Dewey for over 5 years. Phil is retired from the Army where he served in Vietnam and the Pentagon. He then owned and operated a database software company in Wilmington for over 25 years. He likes to shoot pool.

Paige Martin – Tally Clerk

Paige Martin and her husband Drew live at 120 Read Avenue, Dewey Beach. They have three children, ages 18, 22 and 24. Two of them are currently living with them here in Dewey. Paige is a realtor with Long and Foster. She is in the process of transferring her license from the Greenville, DE office to the Rehoboth office. She is also am a certified professional stager and works with Wheeler Home Concepts in Wilmington.

Paige graduated from the University of Richmond with a BA in English.