Good afternoon Mrs. O'Meara, I hope your long weekend was enjoyable. I am writing to you because I have come across complications in my project. I spoke to Eldridge Lumber and found that prices for wood have, as you suspected, drastically increased since I had last requested quotes on materials. The $2000.00 budget that the conservation committee approved for my project will no longer be sufficient for the completion of my entire project. As of last Friday the total cost for materials needed (if supplied by Eldridge Lumber) was $2921.15. I was wondering if an increase to the original budget would be possible in this situation. I would be able to order materials as early as tomorrow to lock in prices.

Thank you,
John Gray

Good afternoon Mrs. O'Meara, I just wanted to check to make sure you got my previous email. If you haven't seen it yet it should be on the same chain as this one.

Thank you,
John Gray

John,

I did see it and the additional expense is approved per the chair. You are good to proceed now. The CC will formally authorize at the November 10th meeting.

Maureen
